

Rose3 opening specials and promotional prize draws Terms and Conditions

This promotion is only on offer for December 2010.

All full members (individual members who pay for a $75.00 Rose3 membership by midnight 31/12/10) will receive a one month extension on a 12 month membership (until 31/1/2012).

Competition Draw 1: Persons who join by 31/12/10 and become full Rose3 members will go into a draw to receive an extension of their membership until 30 June 2012. 5 extended memberships are being offered.

Competition Draw 2: Persons who join by 31/12/10 go into a draw for one free 1½ hour training session for the Family Day care scheme, long day care centre, kindergarten, pre-prep, preparatory, outside school hours care or other early childhood education service of their choice.

The early childhood service nominated must be in the Brisbane, Sunshine Coast or Gold Coast region to take advantage of face to face training. Services outside this area can take advantage of a 1 hour webinar via internet service. Rose3 will provide one 1 hour webinar at a negotiated time. The nominated early education service and the participants will arrange all technical requirements to take advantage of the webinar provided.

This training session can be on the topic of choice as negotiated by Rose3 and the early education service nominated by the winning Rose3 member. The topic must be relevant to early childhood education and within Rose3 service topics. This training session will be for a maximum number of 15 people. The nominated winning service will provide the venue. Rose3 will provide the trainer and relevant training materials. The nominated early childhood service must take advantage of the training session by 30 June 2011.

Winners will be notified by email (as registered on their membership) and their name and early childhood educational service will be published in the Rose3 blog by January 31 2011. Winner's details will also appear on the Rose3 Facebook page. The member who wins the training session must nominate a service by January 31 2011.

These terms and conditions form part of the requirements of taking part in or advantage of any of the above promotions or competitions.

Draw, promotion and competition decisions are final. No correspondence will be entered into.